PSEO and Rental Book Return Form

Name ___________________________________________

Phone # _________________________________________

Student ID# ______________________________________

List Books Returning: __________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

Place this form inside a bag with your books and leave in designated boxes outside bookstore December 7th – 21st, 9:00am – 3:00pm.

PSEO/Rental Students: Books must be returned to the bookstore no later than Monday, December 21st at 3:00 PM to avoid non-return fines. Any books/materials returned with damage (including water) are also subject to fines. If you are mailing your books to the bookstore, they must be postmarked by Friday, December 18th.

The following rental books must be returned or you will be fined: Prebles’ Artforms, Electric Motors & Control System, Writing Arguments, and Criminal Investigation

Questions: Phone 218-262-6706, Email bookstore@hibbing.edu